Here and There

Editorial By Alex. H. Washburn

A DETAILED statement from Engineer Burnside today indicated progress on contracts to close up all the gaps in paved highway No. 67 except one—the Emmet-Prescott gap. That is bad news for this section. The Emmet-Prescott stretch is probably the longest unpaved portion of No. 67 or No. 70 between Texarkana and Memphis, and to leave it in its present condition through another winter is unthinkable.

New Appraisal on Land Bank Loans Rests on Earnings

Bodman Cautions Not to Depend on "Average Sale" Value

FLUCTUATION GREAT

"Average Sale" Valuation Changes Sharply in Short Time

Lloyd Spencer has received from E. J. Bodman, agent of the Land Bank Commissioner at St. Louis, whom he represents as a correspondent in this county, an explanation of the term "normal" value as it is applied to the appraisal of farms.

This will be particularly interesting to the farmers of this county because of the large number of applications for loans from the Land Bank Commissioner and because the normal value of a farm, as arrived at by an official appraiser, has a very important bearing upon the amount of money which may be loaned by the Commissioner or the Land Bank.

"The law specifies that the basis of appraisal in all cases is the normal value of the land for agricultural purposes and its earning power for such purposes is a principal factor," says Mr. Bodman. "There is a distinct difference between this basis and one which averages the sale prices of farms over a series of years with the claim that that average represents normal agricultural value. It may represent the average sale price for a year or a few years, but it does not represent anything else. Where a farm must be appraised on its earning power, crop yields and prices, as well as cost of operation, including overhead charges such as taxes and depreciation, must be taken into consideration."

"Since a Land Bank loan or a Commissioner's loan is made for a long series of years, it is only natural that the normal agricultural value be considered in appraising the land for such loans because, as we have witnessed in the last few years, the selling price of farms may vary considerably even over so short a period as ten years. In the open market a farm may be worth more or it may be worth less than the normal agricultural value."

"The appraisers who place values on farm properties upon which their owners wish to secure loans from the Land Bank or Land Bank Commissioner estimate the production of the land then use the average of farm commodity prices for the year 1909 and 1914 to determine the return of the products. The value of some crops gets out of relation to other values at times. Farm machinery may cost more or less with relation to those prices and taxes are more now, and for some time to come will be more than they were during the period 1909-14. Such conditions, of course, have to be kept in mind in applying average prices to average yields and in estimating earning power of farms. Of course, the price of farm commodities, when applied to average yields, is not the only factor that enters into the determination of the value of a farm. All farms are not crop farms; the livestock carrying capacity of a farm is to be considered and probably sales from livestock, the proportion of good crop land to pasture, the acreage in orchard, timber or waste. Then there are the questions of drainage, overflood and erosion; insect and plant pests and diseases; the supply of water, accessibility to markets, transportation facilities and the degree of help. There is also the location of the school and church and the general character and spirit of the community. All of these have varying degrees of influence upon the value of a farm and they may be different today than they were in the period 1909-14."

Mr. Bodman also points out that the Land Bank is permitted to loan up to 50 per cent of the appraised normal agricultural value of the land plus 20 per cent of the insured, permanent improvement facilities and the further Land Bank loans are always made on the security of a first farm mortgage but loans by the Land Bank Commissioner may be made on first or second liens on land and may include farm chattels, as supplemental. Wherever such loans can be made within the terms of the Farm Loan Act or the Emergency Farm Mortgage Act they will be completed as rapidly as possible. Where the Land Bank can not make a loan it will be the endeavor of the Agent of the Land Bank Commissioner to supply the farmer's needs.

"The Agent can lend up to $5,000 to an individual. The Agent's loan, added to all prior indebtedness on the property, must not exceed 75 per cent of its appraised value. This does not mean, however, that all loans that

As I wrote some time ago in this column, the State Highway Department just barely prevented the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads from recommending asphalt for the Emmet-Prescott link. The highway department discovered in time that the lime base of the experimental road attracted water, and to have laid a flexible asphalt surface on such a yielding base would have been disastrous.

This required a change in plans, definitely committing the state and federal agencies to concrete instead of asphalt.

A certain amount of delay can be excused, but it will be inexcusable if the State Highway Department allows the dead of winter to roll around before this construction is started.

Especially since the federal government through the Public Works division of the National Recovery Act has set aside ample money for this specific project.

President Roosevelt, addressing Civilian Corps workers in a forest camp not long ago:

Too much in recent years large numbers of our population have thought of success as an opportunity to gain money with the least possible work. It is time for each and every one of us to cast away self-destroying, nation-destroying efforts to get something for nothing and to appreciate that satisfying rewards and safe rewards come only through honest work.

It was the gambling spirit carried to great lengths which wrecked us in 1929.

It was a manifestation of that same shiftless spirit which pushed up the stock and commodity markets too fast early this summer, forcing the government banks to "crack down" so the nation wouldn't "crack up."

X X X
We live in an age of confusion. Today's orders are apparently in conflict with everything we were taught yesterday at our mother's knee.

Yesterday we were told to work long and hard, and to save our money. Today we are told to work only a short time, and spend our money freely. Prosperity will come back if we do that, we are told.

But it is not confusing at all, if you pause to examine the record. The fact is we gambled ourselves into national bankruptcy—and now it takes strong-arm methods to bring us out.

Business turned millions of men out of the government dole. All of us cut down on our spending.

Today business is required to take back the unemployed it handed the government. We must share our work so others may have a chance; and we must return, not to extravagance, but to normal spending.

It isn't today's orders that are confusing—it's the memory of yesterday's headache.

Kansas Bond Fraud Rises to $800,000

National Guard Watches Treasury After Huge Swindle

TOPEKA, Kan.—(AP)—Disclosures Thursday raised to $799,000 the amount of forged Kansas municipal bonds involved in a swindle which has brought two arrests, the closing of three banks and the placing of National Guardsmen in the state Treasury. Previously $538,000 had been traced.

Officials said $370,000 of spurious bonds were on deposit with Tom Boyd, state treasurer, as security for state deposits in the three banks.

Gov. Alf M. Landon charged Boyd with unwittingly or knowingly aiding Ronald Finney, accused bond broker, in a transaction through which the Treasury reportedly obtained $150,000 in forged bonds from Finney, and later turned them back to him.

Prescott-Gurdon Gap Paving to Be Asked August 17

Concrete Is Being Poured on Arkadelphia-Gurdon Link

DETOURS ARE GOOD

But No Provision Yet for Emmet-Prescott Paving

Bids for two and a half miles of pavement between Prescott and Gurdon on Highway No. 67 will be submitted for bid by the Arkansas Highway Commission August 17, Frank H. Burnside, district engineer of Hope, said Friday.

Actual work is expected to start immediately following the letting of contracts.

Mr. Burnside said that work on a five-mile detour on old No. 67, between Prescott and Gurdon has already started. A crew of eight workmen are regrading an old road and repairing bridges. Additional workmen may be employed to rush the detour through in time for actual work to begin on the two and one-half miles of pavement. Mr. Burnside said.

The unpaved stretch of seven and a half miles between Emmet and Prescott, and a gap of unpaved road of one and one-fourth miles between Fulton and Texarkana on the same highway, are under advisement, but Mr. Burnside had no information as to when these two stretches would be paved.

The laying of concrete on a gap of one and a half miles through Terre Noir creek bottoms, eight miles south of Arkadelphia on Highway 67, was started Thursday by Contractor Charles L. Bester of Hot Springs.

While the concrete is being laid, travel is being detoured over old highway No. 51, which is in good condition. The detour stretch of three miles makes little difference in the length of the route.

The new concrete through the Terre Noir bottoms will be open for travel about mid-September, engineers say.

France Cuts Out U. S. Tariff Wall

Rescinds New High Levies She Posted Against Us July 18

PARIS, France—Tariff relief was granted in a decree published Thursday to more than 70 products of the United States. This result is being hailed as a triumph for Ambassador Straus on his first major diplomatic task.

Since July 18, when, without notice to American officials or the press, minimum and intermediate tariff rates on these items were cancelled and maximum duties substituted, the new ambassador has been bringing all his efforts to bear to end what Americans have been calling this injustice and discrimination.

Nearly a week ago it was indicated that the government would set matters right, but it was not until Thursday, when the Journal Officiel promulgated the necessary decree, that the change went into effect.

Auxiliary Raises Fund for Cripple

Benefit Show for Ozan Child Brings Excellent Response

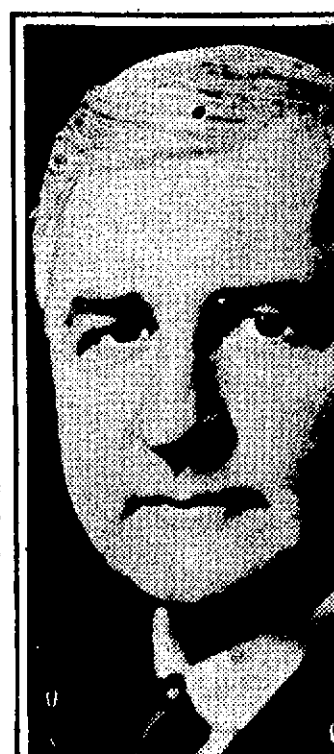

More than enough money to rehabilitate the crippled daughter of an Ozan legionnaire was raised by the American Legion Auxiliary Thursday night on a benefit motion picture show which nearly filled the Saenger theater.

Miss Flora Cotton, county health nurse, brought to the Auxiliary's attention the case of the Ozan child, crippled by an attack of infantile paralysis. An operation, hospital care, special shoes and a pair of expensive braces, would give the little girl a chance to walk again.

The Auxiliary obtained the promise of a free operation, free hospitalization and shoes, but needed money to buy the special braces. The benefit show raised money for that purpose.

The Auxiliary Friday extended thanks to Manager Arthur Swanke of the Saenger; M. S. McCord, executive of Malco Theaters, Inc., operators of the Saenger; the Rotary, Kiwanis, Business & Professional Women's clubs, the American Legion and Hope Star.

Daughter Becomes Futrell Assistant

Mrs. Ernie Maddox First to Serve Since Terral Administration

LITTLE ROCK.—(P)—Mrs. Ernie Maddox, daughter of Governor Futrell is the first woman to become assistant secretary to the chief executive since the administration of Governor Terral.

After the resignation two weeks ago of DuVal L. Purkins as his private secretary, Governor Futrell elevated the assistant-secretary, his son-in-law, H. G. McCall, to his secretaryship.

Mrs. Maddox then took over Mr. Call's former position of a salary of $225 a month. She previously had been listed as a clerk.

Cotton Checks to Be Released Soon

They Will Reach Arkansas Probably Within Next 10 Days

LITTLE ROCK.—Checks representing benefits to Arkansas farmers for cotton plowed up in the federal cotton acreage reduction campaign are expected to arrive within two weeks, T. Roy Reid, assistant director in charge of the state Agricultural Extension Service, said Thursday.

Mr. Reid telegraphed officials of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration urging that checks be forwarded to the farmers as rapidly as possible, but expressed the opinion that the procedure would take ten days or more.

Farmers have plowed under the majority of the approximately 950,000 acres contracted for abandonment in the state, Mr. Reid said. All the acreage pledged is expected to be plowed under by the first of the week, if fair weather continues. Certificates of performance showing that the farmers have plowed up their contracted acreage are being made out rapidly in all counties.

Notes of acceptance of cotton reduction contracts, already informally accepted under the blanket order recently issued by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, are being received daily, Mr. Reid said.

The notes of acceptance must be attached to the certificates of performance and mailed to officials in Washington where they are checked again before checks are sent to the farmers.

Nurse Given $12,000 Award Against Road

WALDRON, Ark.—(P)—A Scott county circuit court jury awarded Mrs. Sue Britt Little Rock nurse, judgment of $12,000 from the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad for alleged injuries to eyes and face while she was assisting during an operation by a railroad surgeon last Little Rock.

Mrs. Britt had sought judgment of $100,000.

Mrs. W. P. Agee, Sr., is critically ill here.

Hope Basket Co. Is Cited in Working Girls Over 9 Hours

MacGregor and Whitten Arrested Under State Labor Law

CHARGE IS DENIED

Company Declares Girls Employed at Piece-Work Rate

G. J. MacGregor, manager of Hope Basket company, and Emmet Whitten, foreman, were placed under arrest Friday for violation of the Arkansas labor law.

Warrants for their arrest were issued from the city hall, charging the two basket factory officials with working female laborers in excess of nine hours per day.

Deputy Prosecuting Attorney John Vesey filed charges at the request of H. C. Malcom, deputy labor commissioner of Little Rock.

Constable Will Porter made the arrests. Their hearing is set for Monday in municipal court.

Manager MacGregor Friday afternoon told The Star:

"We are not forcing anyone at the basket factory to work in excess of the hour limit."

"Our arrests came on a technical charge, growing out of piece-scale work at which the girls in question were employed."

"The factory here operates only part of the year, due to seasonal business for our product. We don't anticipate any trouble over the state labor laws. I believe the whole thing can be ironed out in a satisfactory manner."

Labor Trades to Meet on Tuesday

Crafts Will Discuss NRA Wage Scale at the City Hall

Hope's labor trades will hold an organization meeting at 8 o'clock next Tuesday night, August 15, in the auditorium of the city hall, to discuss a wage scale for the various crafts, which was taken up at a preliminary meeting recently, and other regulations under the National Recovery Administration.

The meeting is for all carpenters, painters, plasterers, bricklayers, plumbers, paper-hangers, or other members of the labor trades.

W. S. Atkins and Alex. H. Washburn have been asked to speak.

British and French May Stop Hitler

They Resent Germany's Meddling in Austria's Affairs

LONDON, Eng.—The British government takes the gravest view of Chancellor Adolf Hitler's alleged violation of pledges to Italy to cease interference in Austrian affairs.

The broadcast by Dr. Theodore Hachtel, German Nazi commissioner for Austria, from Munich, is regarded by the British and French as defiance of the powers and violation of the promise.

The British together with the French are determined not to allow Hitler to get away with any plans to disturb the peace of Europe and intend, unless he renounces his ways, to make it quite plain when the Disarmament Commission reassembles at Geneva that no concessions will be made to Germany while she is in the mood which now apparently possesses her.

NRA Violation Means Ruin, Johnson Warns

He Promises "Economic Death" to Persons Who Lose Blue Eagle—Buying Campaign Launched

WASHINGTON.—(P)—A flat prediction that a case of revocation of the Blue Eagle, emblematic of compliance with the National Recovery Administration, will arise and it will mean "economic death" to the offender, was made Friday by Recovery Administrator Johnson.

At a press conference Johnson promised that violators of the modified presidential re-employment agreements would be disciplined if it was found that they were not complying with their pledge to raise wages and increase employment by shortening hours.

He added, however, that he intended to let the situation rest for a brief period with the local committees.

"But the time is coming," Johnson said, "when somebody is going to take one of these Blue Eagles off someone's window in a clear-cut case."

"And that is going to be a sentence of economic death," the administrator added sternly.

"Buy With NRA"

BALTIMORE.—(P)—An appeal to the nation to "buy now" in stores toward which the NRA's Blue Eagle beckons was made Thursday night by Hugh S. Johnson, the recovery administrator.

In a vigorous address punctuated with arresting phrases, the aggressive economic chieftain struck out at the "doubting Thomases" and the "withering doctors of the let-things-alone school of economic thought."

He called upon consumers to start at once patronizing those firms which are fulfilling the program of raising wages and spreading employment; to increase purchasing power and denied that the plan which he is directing envisions a "boycott."

"It is not picking of the sort," he said. "It is a white list if you like. Nobody is prevented from assuming the insignia of those who are aiding re-employment. Adequate means are provided to protect those who are doing all they can but cannot go the whole distance."

"In those circumstances it would be cowardly and unfair for the NRA to omit to point out to the people that they can only keep the re-employment program going by supporting those who support it. Let us be frank and sensible."

"Public Must Buy Now"

Turning again to his promise to employers that buying would be stimulated to take care of the increased wages which they are asked to pay, Johnson said "the public must buy now."

"It must buy under the Blue Eagle and it must buy to the full of its reasonable and prudent needs," he added. "It cannot be otherwise. To support increased wages there must be increased business. To get increased business there must be increased buying. Increased wages depend on increased buying and we can't have one without the other and that is as certain as that two and two make four."

"The point about buying under the Blue Eagle is just as certain and just as simple. Increased wages come from Blue Eagle employers only. Blue Eagle employers cannot continue increased wages if public patronage goes to their competitors who have no Blue Eagles."

"Failure to support Blue Eagle employers is failure to support increased wages and re-employment. If NRA were afraid to say 'buy under the Blue Eagle' it ought to shut up shop and call the whole thing a flop."

Fugitive Is Taken in River Bottoms

"Texas Slim" Kesterson Captured After 2-Day Boat Chase

HELENA, Ark.—(P)—Sought in the Big Island section of the White river country for several months, Frank (Texas Slim) Kesterson, 35, suspected slayer, was in the custody of federal authorities Friday after a two-day motorboat chase.

He was surrounded and captured 10 miles north of here late Thursday and brought in here Friday.

Kesterson was said by officers to have broken jail at Hickman, Ky., several months ago. Recaptured, he eluded officers again by jumping into a river from a high bridge.

He was accused of killing a man at Mickman, and fled eventually into the White river section of Arkansas.

Two Widows Ask Aviator's Estate

One Was His Wife Seven Years—The Other But 4 Days

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—(P)—Legal action was threatened Thursday at the climax of a public debate over the heir of a war-time aviator, claimed in death by two disputing contenders to widowhood.

The body of Capt. Edward F. M. Deeds, former Royal Flying Corps member who shot down eight enemy planes in combat, and who was killed in a crash in the Orient, will be buried here—but the argument between Mrs. Betty Deeds and Mrs. Marie Hennessy Shirley Deeds as to which was the flier's lawful wife seemed destined to continue.

The court action was hinted by Mrs. Marie Deeds, 23, unborn haired movie actress, in refusing to display documentary proof of her marriage.

"My marriage documents? I've got them," she told a questioner, "but I'm not going to show them to a soul until my lawyer arrives from Los Angeles Saturday."

Machado Parries Blow With Offer to Split Up Power

Willing to Resign If Liberals Retain Cabinet Authority

4-POINT ULTIMATUM

United States Completing Terms of Final Order to Island

HAVANA, Cuba.—(P)—

On the highest political authority it was learned Friday that the Cuban government has submitted to United States Ambassador Sumner Welles a counter-proposal under which President Machado would surrender the presidency to General Alberto Herrera, secretary of war and a member of the Liberal (Machado's) party.

Herrera would then appoint a cabinet from all political parties. The Machado government said it was reluctant to surrender complete control during the period of readjustment.

The U. S. Proposal

HYDE PARK, N. Y.—(P)—The outline of the State Department's program for a new order in Cuba became known Friday as President Roosevelt silently waited for an early response to his declaration that Cuba should put an end to political warfare.

It was learned that the program, now nearing completion, will provide:

1. Sugar production quota.
2. Complete reorganization of the external and internal debt of the country on a lower basis.
3. A new deal for land development.
4. A reciprocal tariff.

Bomb Wrecks Trolley

HAVANA, Cuba.—(P)—As the drive to oust President Machado neared its climax Friday a huge bomb exploded beneath a Havana street-car loaded with policemen, seven of whom were injured, one perhaps fatally.

Meanwhile the interior cities reported that as a result of the general strike which has turned into a revolutionary movement the food shortage is fast becoming acute.

Machado remained at the head of the government but it was expected that his Liberal party would modify its declaration against "intermeddling" by American Ambassador Sumner Welles, who has submitted a mediation plan which calls for Machado's resignation.

Cuban Envoy Goes Home

WASHINGTON.—(P)—After a long conference with Secretary Hull, Ambassador Oscar B. Cintas of Cuba, hurriedly packed for home Thursday night, as authoritative word was passed that he had not been threatened with American intervention to restore peace in the island republic.

State Department officials still clung to the hope that mediation would bring peace to troubled Cuba. They denied reports that preparations were being made for intervention by the United States.

The Cuban embassy said Cintas would leave early tomorrow by train and reach Havana Saturday.

A spokesman said he was merely going home to study the situation. There was no indication, after the conference between Cintas and Hull, that President Machado had yielded to demands from Cuban political leaders for his retirement.

To Buy Hogs for Nation's Destitute

Proposal Would Aid Farmers Short of Feed-stuffs in West

WASHINGTON.—(P)—Five million swine may be led to slaughter in the next few weeks to provide food for the hungry and to assist hard-up corn belt farmers.

An emergency program for this action was proposed Thursday to farm administrators by the National Corn and Hog Committee and there were indications afterward it would be adopted with modifications.

The plan would be financed by a processing tax on hogs weighing more than 235 pounds and be carried out between August 15 and September 1. Meat would be provided at low cost to the unemployed and destitute and aid given corn belt farmers, confronted by the greatest feed shortage in 50 years.

It is estimated from $35,000,000 to $45,000,000 will be required to finance the program to be followed this fall by formulation of a longrange policy on both corn and hog production.

are accepted by the agent are on the basis of up to 75 per cent. In fact, there are very few that will qualify up to that amount. In other words, after the farmer is refinanced by the Land Bank Commissioner, the farmer must have an equity in his property of at least 25 per cent.

"Many farmers, when they find they can get a Commissioner's loan for a certain amount, approach their creditors and get him to scale down their debts to a point where they can be refinanced. However, this is optional upon the part of the creditor. Many of the creditors of the farmers prefer to have cash for their claims even though their claims are reduced in amount rather than to 'carry' farmers longer. A survey made of Commissioner's loans some time ago indicated that at least one out of every 5 loans resulted in a scale-down of the farmer's indebtedness."

Seeking to make the event one of the most important cotton meetings in the South this year, officials of the agricultural extension service of the University of Arkansas are inviting farmers from Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana, Northeast Texas, Oklahoma, Southeast Missouri, as well as Arkansas, to attend.

In addition to Mr. Cobb, tentative speakers on the program include Governor J. M. Futrell, Dr. J. C. Futrell, president of the University of Arkansas, Dean Dan T. Gray of the University college of agriculture, and Congressman W. J. Driver.

Mr. Cobb is coming to the state primarily to get information helpful in formulating next year's program of controlled cotton production. He directed the recent campaign for reduction of cotton acreage to stimulate price increases.

The visiting day at the experiment station annually brings a large number of cotton farmers, especially from eastern Arkansas, the heart of the cotton growing area of Arkansas, to see and hear of the latest developments from experiments at the station.

'Mountain' Is Memorial

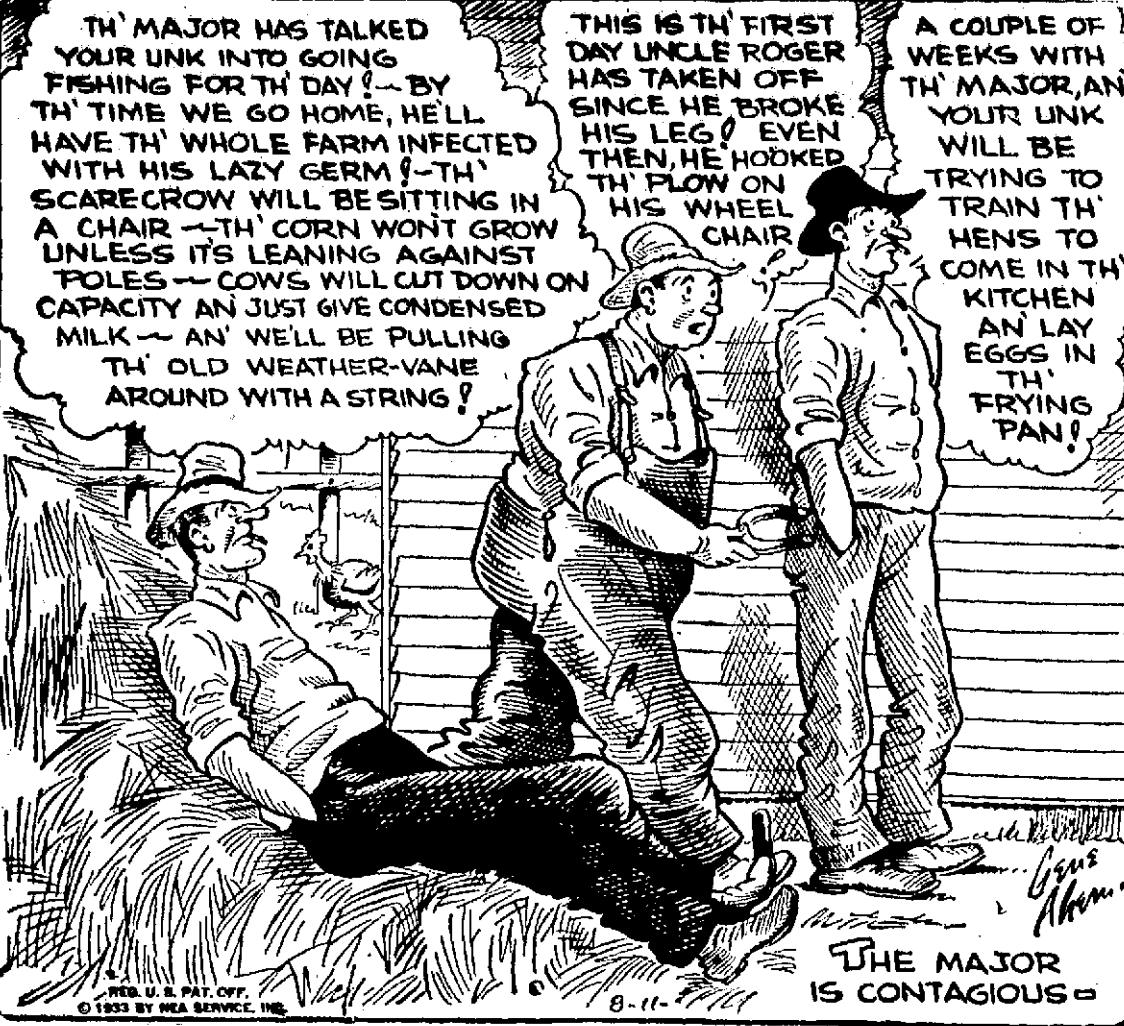

MELBOURNE, Australia.—(7)—That a man-made "mountain" built near the Melbourne war memorial on the occasion of the fourth centenary celebrations of the state of Victoria has been suggested here.

It was proposed that each citizen of Melbourne should contribute one cubic foot of soil to the "mountain," which would later be covered with trees.

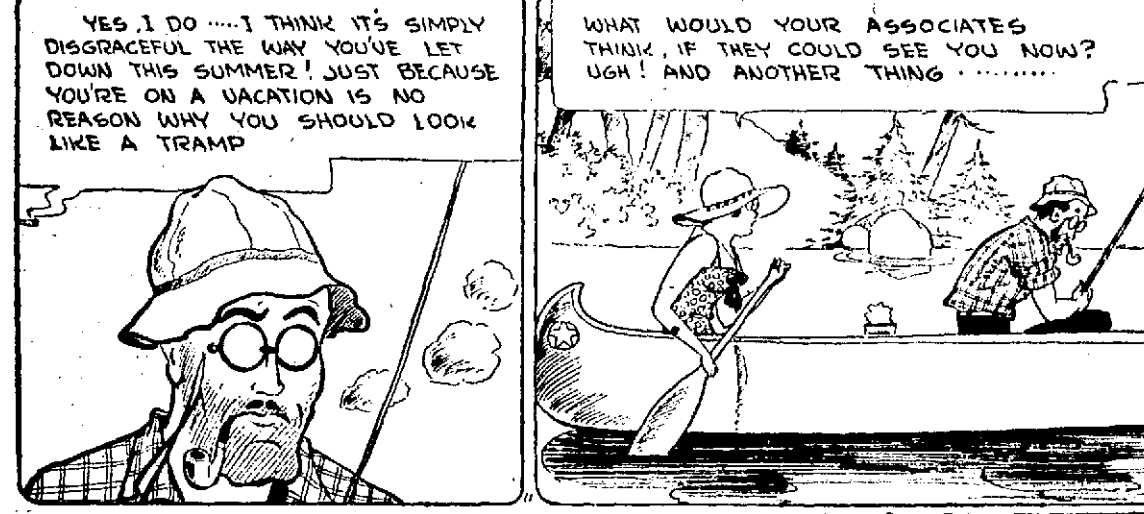

About 3,600 different parts of the world would be asked to send soil.

About 2000 persons could be accommodated in the baths of Diocletian in ancient Rome; six of these establishments were constructed during the days of the Empire.
